St. Patrick's Church Casavant Organ

While the poor in our midst are always among our first concern, we also show gratitude for the parishioners who gone before us, both well-off and not well-off, who contributed much to construction of the space in which we worship and that serves this community, and the beauty of it is for all. We show gratitude to our forebears, our parents, grand grandparents, great grandparents, past clergy, all the people who were contributed to the building and upkeep of the church by doing our part to restore and maintain it, and leave our own legacy that will testify to our care of the church entrusted to us.

On to that end, the organ was originally designed with bells, bells that, at least for a couple of decades, have been removed. Through the generous donation of a parishioner, all 25 chimes were purchased in memory of her late husband. Through another parishioner's generous donation, the old electrical wiring was replaced, and the chimes were installed recently, by the regional representative of the Casavant Frères Organ builders, by whom our organ was designed and built, and who's regional representative is now regularly maintaining our organ, built in 1940 and if purchased today would cost approximately $600,000. So, indeed we are deeply indebted to those parishioners before us.

15th Anniversary of Appointment of Cardinal Thomas Collins as Archbishop of Toronto

On December 16, 2006, Pope Benedict XVI appointed Archbishop Thomas Collins, then serving as the Archbishop of Edmonton, as the 10th Archbishop of Toronto, succeeding Cardinal Aloysius Ambrozic. Archbishop Collins would be officially installed on January 30, 2007 at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica in Toronto.

As we approach the 15th anniversary of his installation, we pray for His Eminence and give thanks for his leadership, guidance and prayerful support of the faithful of the archdiocese. You can learn more about the journey of Thomas Collins from his childhood in Guelph to ordination to the priesthood and his service as bishop in three Canadian dioceses by visiting The Archdiocese of Toronto website www.archtoronto.org

We pray for Thomas, our bishop and shepherd as we reflect on his faithful years of service in the Archdiocese of Toronto.
